

BEST PRACTICE-1:

Title of the Practice: Environmental field study.

1. Goal: To acquire environmental awareness among students.
2. The Practice: A field study is organised for the students of BA 3rd semester. Students were divided into several groups under supervision of a teacher. Each group was consisting 20 students. Students were visit the Deeplai beel near Bilasipara-Kokrajhar road. It is a heritage place under the BTAD administration. Packet lunch were distributer to each of the participant of the tour. Students enjoy the tour much and they are very happy to join such a joyful event.
3. Evidence of Success: Response of the students were much mentionable.
4. Problem encountered: Parent from the remote rural background is not interested to send their daughter to such programme.
5. Resources required: A handsome amount is needed to arrange such tour programme.

BEST PRACTICE-2:

Title of the Practice: Teacher training centre.

1. Goal: To offer training to the teacher at primary level.
2. The Practice: A study centre is opened at the college to offer proper training to the teacher working at the primary level of the locality. This centre is opened as study centre under the National Institute of Open Schooling (NIOS). Under the guideline of NCERT the training is providing to all untrained teachers. After completion of the designed course and having passed the examination held, trainees were provided diploma called D.El.Ed recognised by the state government in teaching jobs.
3. Evidence of Success: Response of the working teacher and graduates willing to be a teacher were much mentionable.
4. Problem encountered: Insufficient number of trainers is a challenge in this regard.
5. Resources required: A handsome amount is needed to provide all necessary facilities.

Principal / Secretary
Ratnapith College, Bahalpur
P.O.- Chapar, Dist.- Dhubri (Assam)