

BEST PRACTICE-1:

1. Title of the Practice: Celebration of International Women's' Day by Women Cell.

2. Goals:

- To develop a spirit of gender sensitization.
- To empower girls with physical and emotional strength.
- To create awareness among the girls about their rights.
- To develop self-esteem and self confidence in girls.

3. Practice: The institution has more than 50% girl students and majority of them hail from rural background. "If you educate a boy, you educate an individual, if you educate a girl, you educate a whole family". In this context every year the Women Cell of the college designs several women empowerment programmes to educate the girl students. This time on International Women's' Day, the women cell of Ratnapith College arranged one interactive and guidance programme. Dr Ratul Deka from Bodoland University gave his valuable insights and enlightened the girl students about how the time has arrived to uphold women achievements, recognize their challenges and focus greater attention on woman's rights and gender equality.

4. Evidence of Success:

The event was a success and large scale of girl students participated the event. Major changes in the attitude of girl students on various parameters were seen.

5. Problems Encountered:

Even though the organisers and girl participants are keen to invite professional and expert trainees and eminent women personalities, the cell is unable to host programmes due to lack of adequate financial resources.

6. Resources required: A handsome amount is needed to invite heavy weight personality.
