

BEST PRACTICE-1:

Title of the Practice: Unveiling Statue of Jananeta S.C. Sinha.

- 1. Goal: To expose the ideology of S C Sinha as a follower of Gandhiji.
- 2. The Practice: Late S C Sinha, the former Chief Minister of Assam and a veteran figure in Gandhian ideology was the architecture of this Ratnapith College. He was a man of simple living and high thinking. In the context of present materialistic society, the value of his life and philosophy is most relevant. In order to expose ideology of S C Sinha among students as well as youth generation, the college authority establish a statue of this great personality in the college campus. This statue is unveiled in the hands of Sjt Sorbananda Sonowal, the Chief Minister of Assam on 28th September, 2020 with a ceremony in the campus.
- 3. Evidence of Success: Huge public gathering held and publicity occurred in daily newspaper on day following the day of unveil.
- 4. Problem encountered: The present covid 19 situation and protocol restricted public gathering.
- 5. Resources required: A handsome amount is needed to build such a statue.

BEST PRACTICE-2:

Title of the Practice: Quarantine Camp.

- 1. Goal: To provide safe shelter to covid positive patient.
- 2. The Practice: Covid 19 pandemic bring an unknown situation across the country. It suffuses the society. People once infected by the virus of corona has the chance to infect other when he meets another. There is no medicine invented till now for this disease. So, it is regarded that isolation is the only measure to prevent it. The administration arranges several safe zones to keep persons who come from outside and already infected by the corona virus. The Ratnapith College was put forwarded its helping hand to the administration to set up its campus as quarantine camp. The camp was running from June to September, 2020.
- 3. Evidence of Success: A large number of covid positive patient were took shelter in the camp.
- 4. Problem encountered: Supporting staff of medical department felt shortage.
- 5. Resources required: A handsome amount is needed to provide basic amenities to the residents.

Principal / Secretary
Ratnapith College, Bahalpur
P.C.- Chapar, Dist.- Dhubri (Assam)